Nesbit Law Denounced.

Senator Farris of Crawford county, a Democrat, denounces the Nesbit law, in the Missouri Senate last week, in a forceful manner. The following is what he said in part:

Many of us vote for the Nesbit law against our own wishes. It is absolutely wrong in many particulars, and instead of giving an honest expression of the voters, it is worse than the preceding law. I will exercise my own ideas on this matter. I am a Democrat, but one of the fundamental principles of Democracy is a free ballot and a fair count. The military was only created to preserve the public peace and protect private property, and was not required to move except to punish violations of law. It is their duty to see that every man entitled to vote may do so, and it ought to be the duty of every policeman and every executive officer to prevent fraud at the polls rather than to protect it. There have been thousands of illegal votes stuffed into the ballot boxes in St. Louis under the eyes of the police, who are powerless to speak. Even in nominating primaries is this seen. Men here today have told me, not twenty-four hours ago, that men who would seek nomination or election to office in St. Louis would have been nominated yesterday had it not been for this fear of police interference, which prevented them from running for office—good substantial, honorable men. This is not right, and is not endorsed by the party of this state. These men do not do this because they desire it. There are other powers behind the throne, from which comes the policemen's orders. I am in favor of the amendment, because it is right and the real Democratic idea of a free election.

Wabash train No. 14, east bound passing here at 4:30 a. m., was wrecked at Elm Point just west of St. Charles last Sunday morning about 6 o'clock. The train was running about 60 miles an hour and the entire train except the engine and rear sleeping car left the track and turned over. L. A. Kirn of this city was aboard the train on his way to St. Louis and escaped with only a few bruises. None of the passengers were seriously hurt which Mr. Kirn described as miraculous owing to the speed of the train and the destruction of the track for some distance.

The wreck was supposed to have been caused by the spreading of the rails.

J. W. Cope and John Ahman of Prices Branch were in town Saturday. They came horseback as far as Wm. Whitesides where they left their horses and walked into town. When the roads are bad, between Whitesides and town is the part most dreaded by the people in that section. This is the piece of road that the Commercial Club experimented (?) on last winter. The business men of Montgomery could not promote their interests in a better way than to rock that road as far as Mr. Whitesides at their own expense.

Died at her home near High Hill, in this county, on Thursday morning, March 12, Mrs. Mary E. Terrill, wife of Richard E. Terrill, in the 29th year of her age.

Mrs. Terrill whose maiden name was Redmon, was born in Crawford county, Mo., June 19, 1874. She was the only daughter of P. F. and Mary E. Redmon. In August 1889 she professed faith in Christ and was baptised by Rev. R. E. McQuile uniting with the Loutre Valley Baptist Church where she remained a consistent member up to the time of her death. She was an excellent christian lady. She leaves on the shores of time one brother, a father, a husband and many dear friends to lament her sudden departure.

Her funeral was preached Friday at 10 o'clock p. m. at Mt. Pleasant Church by Rev. R. E. McQuile (also the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Redmon, who died January 19, 1902, was preached at the same time) after which her remains and the remains of her little babe were laid to rest in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery. R. E. M.

Joe Cupps, who lived with Mr. T. M. Meritt's family here for many years but who now lives beyond Montgomery City, was visited last week, by his brother, John, who works for a St. Louis dairy. At first sight, there is nothing unusual in this announcement; but, there is history behind it. Both of these persons—now men grown—were inmates of an orphan home in St. Louis, years ago. At the age of four years, Joseph was taken to raise by the late Thos. M. Meritt of this vicinity. His brother, John, though the younger of the two, had even before that been provided for in the way of a home. Being so young, of course they did not think to keep track of each other, so lost all trace of the only living members of their family.

Mrs. Dr. Taylor, late of this place but now of Montgomery, was formerly a teacher in this orphan's home, so interested herself and traced John Cupps, who had been raised by a farmer, to St. Louis and finally located him in the dairy work, with the result of bringing him to Montgomery City to renew his brotherly relationship, after a separation of over twenty-five years. It is unnecessary to say that the meeting was mutually pleasant. The brothers were coming down here to visit Joe's old home, but were prevented on account of the muddy condition of the roads. They intend, however, to make the visit this fall. Joe married Miss Carrie Yetter, one of Middleton's handsomest and most popular young ladies, and has a nice farm a few miles west of Montgomery City.—Chips.

Dr. Reyburn Snethen, last week finished his second year's course at Barnes Medical College in St. Louis and is now visiting in Montgomery.

Beyond all Comparisons.

One of the many factors contributing to the remarkably rapid and solid growth of St. Louis is the marvelous development of the Southwest and other territory tributary to that city in all lines of trade. In 1904 there will be held the greatest World's Fair in the world. The presidential campaign will also take place. To keep informed with the whole world you should subscribe at once for the peer of newspapers, The Twice-a-week St. Louis Republic. It is indispensable to the farmer, merchant or professional man. Its telegraphic and cable service exceeds that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and worldwide facts. It is Democratic in politics, but distinctly a national newspaper and family journal. The subscription price of $100 gives you two papers each week, 104 papers a year. tf.

Paine's Celery Compound

Permanently Cures Sick and Nervous Headaches that Make Life Miserable.

Sick and nervous headaches are amongst the worst ills of life. The man or woman who is subject to headache at irregular intervals, goes through life bearing a load of misery and wretchedness that is terrible to think of.

Headaches as a rule, result from a disordered condition of the nervous system. Mental excitement, loss of sleep, bodily fatigue, and disordered digestion are exciting causes. When the brain becomes tired and debilitated, the whole nervous system is weakened, and headaches result. If the liver is sluggish, the kidneys inactive, and digestion deranged, headaches invariably follow. To cure and prevent headache, the nervous system must be strengthened and vitalized. The most persistent cases of headache, nervous feebleness, and sleeplessness, are permanently cured by Paine's Celery Compound; it is the great reconstructant of the nervous system. Mrs. Henry Westrick, St. Clair, Mich., tells of her release from suffering as follows:—

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache for a number of years. About every week I would have a bad spell of sick headache, but since I began using Paine's Celery Compound, my dyspepsia is gone, and I do not have any more headaches. I feel better than I have for years."
